

EQUIVALENCE OF ACADEMIC PREPARATION

Legal Authority: Sections 9.170, 9.180, 9.220 and 9.290

Section 1.- Any license application shall be accompanied with evidence as to the last grade completed by the applicant, in the case of an individual, or by the persons that shall act in the name of the applying entity, in the case of a corporation or firm. This evidence may consist of a photostatic copy of a diploma, certified copy of the academic record of the last year completed, or a letter addressed to the Commissioner of Insurance of Puerto Rico by the Secretary of Public Education certifying the last grade completed by the applicant or a certificate from the Secretary of Public Education of Puerto Rico to the effect that such person meets otherwise the schooling requirements.

Section 3.- Any person applying for a license as solicitor, agent, broker or adjuster who is unable to furnish the evidence required under Section 1 of this Rule shall, in order to comply with the requirement of the education equivalence under the Insurance Code approve the corresponding examination offered by the Department of Public Education to measure the equivalence of the ninth grade and the fourth year of high school.
